

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF PROFESSIONAL GEOLOGISTS BYLAWS OF THE MICHIGAN SECTION
Revised November 6, 2020

ARTICLE 1. ORGANIZATION, PURPOSES, AND GENERAL POWERS

1.1 Organization

1.1.1 Name. The name of this organization shall be the Michigan Section of the American Institute of Professional Geologists.

1.1.2 Status. This Section is established on November 17, 1976, in accordance with the Bylaws of the Institute. It is a self-governing component of the American Institute of Professional Geologists, a not-for-profit membership corporation organized under the laws of the State of Colorado.

1.1.3 Territory. The territory within which this Section is authorized to represent and act for and on behalf of the Institute, within the Bylaws and policies of the Institute, is prescribed by the Institute and consists of the State of Michigan. The Territory of the Section may be expanded or decreased by action of the Institute.

1.2 Purposes

1.2.1 The purpose of this Section shall be to further the purposes of the Institute within the territory assigned to it. In furtherance of its purpose as a component of the Institute, this Section shall have the following additional purposes not inconsistent with those of the Institute:

1.2.1.1 To represent the members of the Institute assigned to this Section through the Section's delegate on the Advisory Board of the Institute;

1.2.1.2 To encourage nonmember geologists within the territory of this Section to obtain the qualifications for and to apply for membership in, or affiliation with, the Institute;

1.2.1.3 To assist in the screening and selection of applicants for membership or affiliation in accordance with the Bylaws, policies, procedures and directives of the Institute;

1.2.1.4 To monitor and influence legislation and regulation affecting the professional activities of geologists within the territory of this Section, in accordance with the legislative and regulatory goals and objectives of the Institute and the Institute's Policy of Advocacy;

1.2.1.5 To promote the professional awareness and technical skills of geologists, the interchange of ideas and the cohesion and fellowship of the profession through professional and educational meetings;

1.2.1.6 To provide liaison between the members of this Section and the local geological community, the state comprising its territory, and the public;

1.2.1.7 To enhance the image, reputation and awareness of the profession and the Institute through the dissemination of information to governments, schools, civic organizations and the general public; and

1.2.1.8 To assist and support the work of the Institute.

1.3 Powers

1.3.1 Powers Granted. Within the territory assigned to it by the Institute, and in furtherance of the purposes of the Institute and this Section, this Section shall have all the powers and authority necessary to carry out its functions, within the limitations established by the Institute. In particular, this Section shall have the following powers:

1.3.1.1 Subject to the approval of the Institute, to adopt and amend these bylaws to govern its organization and affairs;

1.3.1.2 To propose dues for the members and affiliates assigned to it by the Institute;

1.3.1.3 To determine its governance and organizational structure, and to elect the officers and appoint the committees and others necessary to carry out the purposes of this Section;

1.3.1.4 To raise funds and make expenditures within the budgets and fiscal criteria approved and established by the Institute, which funds shall at all times; however, remain the property of the Institute under management of this Section; and

1.3.1.5 To establish subsidiary districts and chapters to operate within the territory and under the supervision of this Section.

1.3.2 Limitations. This Section shall take no action which shall contravene any Bylaw, policy, procedure or directive of the Institute. In particular, this Section shall have no power to do any of the following:

1.3.2.1 To bind or make statements on behalf of the Institute;

1.3.2.2 To incur any liability or financial obligation in excess of the assets in custody of the Section;

1.3.2.3 To own any real property;

1.3.2.4 To approve or deny admission to membership in the Institute, or to impose any form of discipline upon a member of the Institute; or

1.3.2.5 To establish or maintain any category or class of membership or affiliation other than those permitted by the Institute.

ARTICLE 2. MEMBERSHIP

2.1 Section Composition. This Section shall be comprised of all Members and Affiliates of the Institute, in such categories or classes as have been established by the Institute, who maintain residency or their principal places of business within the territory of this Section.

2.2 Rights and Privileges of Members and Affiliates. Members and Affiliates shall have all the rights and privileges in this Section as are afforded to them by the Bylaws of the Institute.

ARTICLE 3. SECTION MEETINGS

3.1 Annual Meeting

3.1.1 Notice. This Section shall hold an annual membership meeting during the fourth quarter of each year at a location determined by the Section Executive Committee. The date of the annual meeting or any other meeting of this Section shall not conflict with the published date of the Annual Meeting of the Institute. Written notice of the date, time and location of such meeting shall be provided to each Member and Affiliate of this Section not less than 60 days in advance of the meeting. Such notice may be contained in a regular or special publication of this Section.

3.1.2 Business. The business at the annual meeting shall include the announcement of the election of Section officers as provided in these Bylaws; the delivery of this Section's annual report; and any other business which may properly come before the meeting.

The Early Career Professionals Committee will assign committee members to serve as liaisons for each Section Student Chapter, who shall hold an introductory meeting at the beginning of each school year (Fall Semester) with each Student Chapter to discuss Student Chapter goals and requirements. The Early Career Professionals Committee will maintain communication with the Section's Student Chapters, assist in soliciting newsletter articles, social media efforts, and event coordination.

5.5 Other Committees.

5.5.1 Establishment. The Section Executive Committee shall establish committees of this Section, as may be appropriate, to perform functions comparable to those of committees of the Institute, to maintain liaison with such Institute committees, and to assist in carrying out the purposes and objectives of the Institute and this Section. The name, size, duration, and responsibilities of each Section Committee shall be determined by the Section Executive Committee; shall be recorded in the minutes of its proceedings and the records of this Section; and shall be reviewed and kept current by the Section Executive Committee on an annual basis.

5.3.2 Term of Existence. The Section Executive Committee may discharge and dissolve any committee at any time, except those committees required by the Institute. Every committee, other than the standing committees specified herein, shall automatically be discharged following completion of its work and the submission of its report, recommendations or findings. The Secretary shall record such discharge in the minutes of the Section Executive Committee and remove the committee from the list of Section committees.

5.3.3 Special Committees. The President may establish and appoint any "ad hoc" or special committee as may be needed for special projects and functions of the Section. Such action shall be reported to the Section Executive Committee and recorded in the minutes thereof. Unless extended or renewed by affirmative action of the Section Executive Committee, each such committee shall complete its work within, and shall automatically be discharged at the conclusion of, the term of office of the President.

ARTICLE 6. DISTRICTS AND CHAPTERS OF THIS SECTION

6.1 Establishment. The Section Executive Committee may subdivide its territory into two or more districts. The Section Executive Committee may establish, alter or dissolve subsidiary chapters.

6.2 District and Chapter Organization and Operations. Districts and chapters shall be organized by the Section Executive Committee in accordance with the Institute Bylaws and policies. This Section shall remain responsible to the Institute for the conduct of all the activities and affairs of such districts and chapters, and for all reports and other responsibilities required by the Institute.

ARTICLE 7. PROPERTY AND FINANCES

7.1 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of this Section shall coincide with the Institute's fiscal year.

7.2 Section Funds and Property.

7.2.1 Property of Institute. The Institute is a single, unified organization, and all property and funds held by a Section are the property and funds of the Institute, entrusted to the Section for its use and benefit in accordance with the purposes of the Institute. Upon dissolution of this Section, or otherwise upon the demand of the Institute, this Section shall transfer all funds and property held by it to the Institute, or as directed by the Institute. This Section shall not permit any lien or encumbrance to be placed on any of the funds or property held by this Section, without the express prior approval of the Institute Executive Committee.

7.2.2 Section Accounts. All funds of this Section shall be deposited and maintained in accounts in financial institutions designated by the Section Executive Committee and approved by or meeting standards established by the Institute Treasurer, and shall bear the name "American Institute of Professional Geologists- Michigan Section." The Institute Treasurer, the Section Treasurer, and the Section President shall all be authorized signatories on all such accounts. It shall be the responsibility of the Section Treasurer to obtain all necessary signatures and authorizations required to open and maintain such accounts, and to provide the depository with the Institute tax identification numbers and other data.

7.2.3 Section Property. This Section shall hold no real property of any nature, nor any interest in any real property. All personal property of this Section, other than expendables and inventories such as office supplies, shall be held in the name of the American Institute of Professional Geologists- Michigan

Section. This Section shall not acquire any property which would create a financial burden upon the Institute. Any expenditure for property in excess of $200 shall be subject to the approval of the Section Executive Committee.

7.2.4 Expenditures. Funds of this Section shall be disbursed by the Treasurer by check written on this Section's accounts. Unless specifically approved by the Institute Executive Committee, no expenditure may be made or debt or obligation incurred which exceeds the assets held by this Section. Unless specifically approved by the Section Executive Committee, no expenditure may be made or debt or obligation incurred which is in excess of the amounts budgeted therefor.

7.2.5 Institute Tax Exemption. This Section shall comply with all requirements necessary to maintain the Institute's tax exemption as a professional organization under Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code and any similar state or local tax exemptions; shall maintain and produce all records required for the proper reporting by the Institute; and shall not engage in any activity, or collect or disburse any funds which would threaten the tax-exempt status of the Institute or subject the Institute to any fines, penalties, or levies by taxing authorities.

7.2.6 Reporting. All financial transactions, including receipts, expenditures, and fund balances, shall be reported to the Institute at such times and in the form and manner required by the Institute.

7.3 Section Dues, Assessments and Fund-Raising

7.3.1 Annual Dues. The annual dues of this Section for each category of its membership shall be proposed by the Section Executive Committee. This Section shall notify the Institute of the proposed amount of this Section's annual dues before October 1. Dues rates must be approved by the Institute Executive Committee.

7.3.2 Collection of Dues. Section dues shall be collected and remitted to this Section as provided in the Institute Bylaws, in accordance with Institute procedures.

7.3.3 Fund-Raising Activities. All fund-raising activities of this Section are subject to the prior approval of the Institute Executive Committee.

ARTICLE 8. APPROVAL AND AMENDMENTS

8.1 Approval by Institute. These Bylaws are subject to the initial approval of the Institute Executive Committee, as evidenced by the signature of an authorized Institute officer appearing hereon. These Bylaws may not be amended or altered in any manner that will bring them into conflict with the Bylaws, policies, procedures or directives of the Institute. Any amendment of these Bylaws shall be subject to the approval of the Institute Executive Committee. The date of each such amendment, and the Institute Executive Committee's approval thereof, shall be recorded herein.

8.2 Amendments

8.2.1 Amendments at Meetings of the Members. Subject to the subsequent approval of the Institute Executive Committee, these Bylaws may be amended by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Members of this Section present and eligible to vote thereon at any meeting of this Section.

8.2.2 Amendments by Mail or Electronic Ballot. Subject to the subsequent approval of the Institute Executive Committee, these Bylaws may be amended by majority vote of the Members by mail or electronic ballot.

8.2.3 Submission, Approval and Notice of Amendments. All amendments submitted for approval by the Members of this Section:

8.2.3.1 Shall have been approved by the Section Executive Committee, or set forth in a written petition signed by at least a quorum of the Members of this Section; or

8.2.3.2 Shall have been the subject of not less than 60 days' notice to the membership containing the proposed amendment or description thereof.

8.2.4 Amendments by Executive Committee. These Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the entire Section Executive Committee where (1) the amendments do not substantially affect the rights, privileges and obligations of the membership of this Section, or (2) such amendments have been recommended (but not required) by the Institute, upon 30 days' notice to the membership describing the proposed amendments. All amendments are subject to approval by the Institute Executive Committee.

8.2.5 Amendments Required by the Institute. These Bylaws shall be amended by the Section Executive Committee as necessary to comply with (1) changes in Institute Bylaws, policies or procedures, (2) a directive from the Institute requiring such amendment, or (3) any laws, regulations, or legal decisions affecting the Institute. Notice of the amendment or amendments shall be given to the membership of this Section as soon as practicable after they have been approved by the Institute Executive committee. Any directive of the Institute requiring amendment of these Bylaws shall have the same force and effect as an amendment, and shall supersede and take precedence over any provisions of these Bylaws which are in conflict or are inconsistent therewith.
